

Convention Services

Los Banos' central location makes it the perfect choice for your next conference. All of the services you could need can be found right here in Los Banos.

Conference Facilities

Los Banos Community Center- Our newest "gem" is the Los Banos Community Center. This project is scheduled to be complete August of 2010 and will feature a "Grand Room" that can seat up to 472 people and be divided into 3 rooms. AV equipment, outdoor courtyard and kitchen are also available.

Merced Spring Fairgrounds- offers three venues. The O'Banion Building is the largest and can accommodate up to 712 people for dining. It also has a full size professional stage for entertainment. There is a separate lobby with restrooms and coat check available. The Exhibit Building can seat up to 480 people for meals. It has easy kitchen access for catering and/or serving. The Germino Building can seat 211 people for a meal and has a prep kitchen available for caterers. There are also some outdoor facilities available that include a barbecue area with dance area and outdoor stage. Tables, chairs, portable bar and more are available for an additional charge.

DES Hall- This two story facility offers a large, professional kitchen facility, dining area and built-in bar downstairs and professional stage and dance floor upstairs. Tables and chairs are included with rental.

Vagabond Inn- has a room off the front lobby that is available for small conferences. They can seat approximately 30 people and can provide overnight accommodations as well.

Several of the local restaurants have private rooms that are available for small meetings. Espana's has a private room that can seat up to 100 people and they can also provide meal and bar service. Olinda's is adjacent to Vagabond Inn and has two private rooms that can hold up to 100 people. They also offer food and bar service. Country Waffles has a semi-private room that can seat up to approximately 40 people and they are open for breakfast and lunch. Eddie's Famous Cafe has a small private room and they offer food service. Cecelia's has a small private room and a patio for private parties and specializes in Mexican fare. The world famous Wool Growers provides mouthwatering Basque food served family style and also has a semi-private banquet room.

There are also local caterers that can provide food and bar service for your event. Espana's provides full service off-site catering; Small Thyme Catering provides catering as does Cecelia's Restaurant, and several restaurants, such as Ming's and Chilis offer catering for pick-up.

Hotel de Oro is located in Santa Nella, approximately 10 miles west of Los Banos and features 10 meeting rooms that can accommodate groups of up to 350 people. They can provide both food, beverage and overnight guest accommodations.

There are also local businesses that can help with services such as printing, copying, office supplies and attendee supplies. Office City and Office Supply Express offer a wide array of conference services and delivery is an added plus. Both are located in Downtown Los Banos. Wal Mart and Target also offers a wide variety of office supplies. Westwind, One Hour Photo and Garcia Signs can provide custom banners for your event.
